Announcing the Twenty-first Annual German Scholarship

Sponsored by the Lancaster Liederkrantz

$1000 will be awarded to a graduating high school senior of Central Pennsylvania who plans to study German as a major or minor at a four-year college.

The student must demonstrate interest in the German language and culture beyond the classroom.

Interested students must mail the completed scholarship application to Judy Zodet, Chairperson of the Scholarship Fund, by 1 April 2016. Letters of recommendation from two teachers must accompany the returned application. In addition, the Liederkrantz Scholarship Committee will interview the scholarship semi-finalists, or if this is not possible, semi-finalists will be asked to submit a tape recorded message in German.

Duplicate this information and the scholarship application as often as needed.
