

Monthly Meeting Minutes
March 1, 2018

The Monthly Meeting was called to order by President Bob Kilp. Bob asked for anyone who is not a member to please leave the ballroom.

The membership stood together to salute the flag and recite the Pledge of Allegiance.

Roll call of officers was taken. Everyone was present.

The names of deceased members were read:

- Warren Cook
- John Ehleiter
- Gus Schultz

Attendance was taken and there were 72 members present.

The next Order of Business was the reading of the minutes from the previous monthly meeting. Motion to dispense with the reading was made by Joe Eckenrode and seconded by Larry Withum.

As per Roberts Rules, the minutes of the previous Monthly Meeting have been posted in the barroom and on our website. No corrections to minutes were proposed, so the minutes were approved as posted.

Committee Reports:

Chorus:

George Ehemann gave the report.

The Chorus is currently rehearsing for their Spring Concert on April 28 at the Zion Lutheran Church in Landisville. They rehearse on Wednesday evenings at 7pm. George noted that they have a skilled accompanist and director that they are lucky to have lead them.

The Chorus Breakfast Fundraiser coming up in April. Tickets will be on sale soon.

The Chorus will be traveling by bus on June 2 to the Northeastern Singing Society (NOSB) Concert. They are considering offering a bus trip to interested members. George estimates a cost of $35 per person, which includes the cost of admission to the concert.

Schuhplattlers and Kindergruppe:

Paul Stanavage gave the report.

This weekend is the Mid-Atlantic Jugend Einzel Competition. It starts at 10am. There will be 11 groups coming here from the Mid-Atlantic region to compete. Young children are critiqued and older children are judged. At 5pm there will be a Heimatabend with music and dancing.

Hobby Chor:

Tim Haertter gave the report.

The group is performing at the Canstatter this Saturday and have two vans going. On Sunday, March 4th, They will be representing the Liederkrantz at 1st St. James Lutheran for their German Easter Service.

Alleweil Jung:

Carolyn Santos gave the report:

Carolyn explained to the new members that the group does folk dancing. They have grown to 8-10 couples and practice every 2nd and 4th Mondays. They are preparing for Cabbage Hill Day and Student Day. They just had their Schneeball. Carolyn offered thanks to all who attended and baked desserts. They are sponsoring Ein Abend in Wien in April.

Grant Committee:

Judy Zodet gave the report.

The next fundraiser for the grant fund is the Easter Egg sale. They will be starting to make Easter Eggs on February 12th. Volunteers are needed.

Trustee Report:

Jeff Munster gave the report.

Current Projects:

- Hacker Pschorr Beer Kick Off - March 2
- Gutter Replacement Project

Correspondence:

Elise read Thank You letters from Hospice, Schreiber Pediatric, Aaron's Acres, and Music For Everyone.

Old Business:

None

New Business:

Bob Kilp: There will be open positions in the next officer elections. Please see anyone on the nominating committee for more information - Peter Knapp, Joe Eckenrode, Paul Stanavage.

For the Good of the Club:

Bob Kilp: A 10 piece band, The Musikverin Kollmeier, will be coming to the club on March 27th. A Turkey Dinner will be served for $15. The concert will be at 7pm and dinner served at 5:30pm.

Bob Kilp: Cabbage Hill Day tickets are on sale. They are $10 for dinner and entertainment.

Bob Kilp: This year's Easter Egg Hunt is March 31 at 10am. No tickets are needed. The Easter Bunny will be there. Thanks to Paxton Beck for running this event.

Bob Kilp: Susi Hartman, the Chair of the Queen Selection Committee, is looking for candidates for Miss German America of Philadelphia. Candidates from the Liederkrantz must fill out an application to be Miss Lancaster Liederkrantz first. See Elise with questions.

John Freidhoff: The date for Easter Egg hunt in the newsletter is incorrect. It is March 31.

Judy Zodet: Easter Eggs are for sale from Ticket Booth after meeting. Sales benefit the Grant Fund which sponsors Sommer Singspiel.

Tom Markow (Club Historian): Tom has been doing some research with the Lancaster County Historical Society. He found Die Lanterne (a German language newspaper) from 1876, which mentions Edward Koch, who was a director of the Chorus for a short time. Koch was active in Saint Anothony's Catholic Church. Tom is looking to form a history committee – a group of people who are interested in the history and would be willing to help with gathering information. See Tom if interested. Upon request, Tom also gave a brief history of Cabbage Hill and its relationship to the Liederkrantz in anticipation for the upcoming Cabbage Hill Day .

The Hobby Chor led everyone in song accompanied by Tom Markow on accordion.

A 50/50 drawing was held and $28 was won by John Freidhoff.

Joe Eckenrode motioned to adjourn the meeting and Jim Cunningham seconded.

Respectfully Submitted,

Elise Bullington
